UNISA

University of South Australia

WELCOME

On behalf of the University of South Australia and UniSA Sport, welcome to the 2021 UniSA Sport Awards.

Tonight provides an important opportunity to recognise and celebrate an outstanding range of contributions and achievements from individuals, teams and clubs, all of whom have played a major role in the continued growth and development of UniSA Sport.

2021 has felt like a continuation of 2020 in many ways with the ongoing impact of COVID-19 on our day to day lives. Sport has certainly not escaped unscathed, from forced facility closures, the cancellation of sporting competitions and the new norm of facemasks, capacity limits and QR codes, we have had to adapt to continue to play, train and compete. That's the great thing about sport and the people who are involved though, they are passionate and will do what it takes to see the resumption and continuation of their sport.

It is very apparent that despite the impact of COVID-19 there is a real desire to participate in sport and physical activity. This is no more evident than within UniSA Sport's Clubs. Overall club membership numbers are at an all-time high reflecting the outstanding work undertaken by our club committees and volunteers. Our clubs not only provide sport, they also provide an opportunity for social connection at a time when it has never been more important. This is something people are actively seeking during these times of lockdowns and increased online activity.

Our facilities have borne the brunt of less people on campus more than most. However, we are providing increased access and supervision to our academic colleagues in Allied Health & Human Performance and Education Futures, we continue to deliver an outstanding learn to swim program for International students and have supported several of our clubs deliver social sport competitions. Whilst impacted, our facilities have adapted and thrived.

At a local representative level, 2021 saw continued expansion of the SA Challenge in part due to the cancellation of the traditional UniSport Nationals Div 1 & Div 2. In total we competed against Flinders University, The University of Adelaide and Torrens University in 15 sports, winning six pennants. Again, we lead the pack when it comes to participation in this event reflecting our focus on student engagement. We had almost 200 students represent Team UniSA, significantly more than any of the other universities. We were also crowned SA Challenge winners for the first time since 2017, a title that is reward for effort of our students involved. At national intervarsity level, five students represented UniSA at UniSport Nationals Athletics and Swimming events.

We also tasted national success during 2021. In May UniSport Australia announced the winners of their 2020 UniSport Australia Awards. Of the nine awards on offer UniSA won three to continue our recent trend of winning national awards. We were successful in the following categories: Female Athlete of the Year, Team of the Year and Most Outstanding Contribution by a Student Volunteer.

Despite the challenges and disruptions, UniSA Sport has continued to grow in number and what we deliver. From being the most well represented at the annual Clubs Conference to the introduction of the Athlete Development Program to welcoming new clubs to the delivery of new sporting and on-campus events, UniSA Sport has bucked the national trend of abatement and continues to provide outstanding sport and active recreation opportunities for the University and wider community.

Congratulations to all our award winners, each is richly deserved. Whilst tonight is about recognising a select few I would also like to congratulate all of our award nominees and finalists. My thanks go to those who have volunteered in any capacity throughout the year supporting a club or event. To the UniSA Sport Advisory Group and Student Advisory Group; thank you for your time, guidance and support throughout 2021. Finally, to the staff of UniSA Sport, in 2021 we have continued to face significant professional challenges yet we continue to deliver an outstanding product to UniSA students, staff and the general community due in no small part to your unwavering commitment, energy and enthusiasm.
